31.	Y N	A3's shot for a field goal is in the air when the shot clock signal sounds, followed by the ball lodging between the ring and the backboard. The alternating possession arrow favours team A. The referees rule that this is a jump ball situation and award team A with a throw-in from the endline with 14 seconds on the shot clock. Is this correct?
32.	Y N	B4 is injured and the game is stopped. As B4 is not able to continue to play immediately, a referee blows the whistle making the conventional sign for a substitution. Either team requests a time-out after a substitute for B4 enters the game. At the end of the time-out, B4 is recovered and requests to remain in the game. 37.	Y N	With 3:18 on the game clock in a quarter, during an alternating possession throw-in, thrower-in A1 takes more than 5 seconds to release the ball. The referees call a violation on A1 and resume the game with a team B throw-in and immediately reverse the direction of the alternating possession arrow. Is this procedure correct?
38.	Y N	A1 drives to the basket when B1 falls backwards on the playing court without contact between these players. A warning for such action was already communicated to all team B players through the team B head coach. Shall B1 be charged with a technical foul?

Is this the correct procedure?
42.	Y N	With 1:45 on the game clock and 10 seconds on the shot clock in the fourth quarter, A1 dribbles in her backcourt and is charged with a technical foul. Team A is granted a time-out. 43.	Y N	While progressing down the court, A3 jumps and gains control of a pass from A1 while both feet are off the floor. A3 lands on his right foot, then jumps off the right foot and lands with both feet simultaneously in coming to a stop. May A3 now pivot with either foot?

47.	Y N	B3 fouls A3. This is the sixth team B foul in the quarter. A3 is awarded 2 free throws. Instead of A3, it is A5 who attempts the 2 free throws. The error is recognised after the ball has left A5's hands for the first free throw. The referees cancel the 2 free throws and resume the game with a team B throw-in from the free-throw line extended in its backcourt. Is this the correct procedure?
48.	Y N	B1 is charged with an unsportsmanlike foul on A1 on her successful field goal. A1 is then charged with a technical foul. The referees rule that A1's field goal counts and the foul penalties for the unsportsmanlike and the technical foul cancel each other and resume the game with a team B throw-in at any place from the endline as after any successful field goal. Are the referees correct?
49.	Y N	A3 attempts a shot for a field goal. The ball rebounds from the ring and still has the chance to enter the basket when the game clock signal sounds for the end of the third quarter.
